“ To each of Amanda’s friends and family members,

I set up the memorial website to share memories for a close friend, a co-worker and to remember Amanda Burton—a woman whose life was marked by courage, faith, love, and deep devotion to those she held dear.

Amanda was a mighty warrior in every sense of the word. She served her country with strength and honor as an Army veteran, standing with courage and sacrifice so that others might live in freedom. But her strength did not end there. She was also a warrior in her faith—a devoted Christian who walked with God, trusted Him deeply, and reflected His love in the way she lived her life each day. She was a warrior when she faced her last illness and fought cancer with all her strength.

Above all, Amanda was a devoted and loving mother. Her son was the center of her heart, and she poured into him not only her love, but her values, her faith, and her strength. She leaves behind an extraordinary example for him to follow—a legacy of integrity, resilience, and unwavering love.

Amanda had a spirit that embraced life fully. She found joy in adventure—in hiking trails, chasing waterfalls, standing by rivers, and especially delighting in the beauty of snow. There was something about the wonder of creation that spoke to her soul. Whether in quiet moments outdoors or in laughter shared with family, she lived with appreciation and joy.

And most of all, Amanda loved her family. That love was steady, fierce, and constant. It was the kind of love that shows up, that stays, that gives, and that endures and each family member felt that love she had for them.

I had the privilege of knowing Amanda and working with her for a number of years. During that time, I witnessed her strength, her faith, and her heart. She made an impact that will not be forgotten.

In creating this memorial space, it is my hope that friends and family can come together to share memories, stories, and photos—because Amanda’s life deserves to be remembered in the fullness of the love she gave and the lives she touched. I will be making a special Life Tribute movie that will be a glimpse into a life that was truly well lived and deeply loved.

Though we grieve her absence, we also celebrate her life. We carry forward her legacy—in her son, in her family, and in all who were blessed to know her.

Well done, good and faithful servant. Amanda, you will always be remembered. You will always be loved.

CH

In memory of Amanda, three years ago, you trusted me to serve as a hospice aide with St. Bernardine Hospice. Though we only connected through calls and messages, I still remember the trust you placed in me. I look back with gratitude, and that connection still means a lot. I'll miss reaching out to you and hearing from you. You truly mattered, and I will carry your memory in my heart. ❤️
