“ I last saw Bonnie a week before she passed. We had a tea party a month before that. I know she thought she was going to get better. I thought so too. She was such a beautiful person. Anyone know where her dog Yogi is now? Here’s my number if anyone can text me 949 324 6918

“ I cannot express my love for Bonnie in adequate words.....she was a treasure and the dearest of friends. We laughed so much and talked of every detail of life and future plans and things to do. From our early morning walks and afternoon tea chats with her dark chocolate when she lived in Bend, we formed a quick and lasting bond. There are not enough candles to shine as bright as she did in life and as I’m sure she is in heaven. I will miss our almost daily video chats and her sweet ending each time.....”I love you and miss you Gaylynne”. I echo those words for you dear friend. ❤️❤️❤️

“ Bonnie was my dear friend, whom I met dancing, when she was living in Bend, Oregon. From the instant I met Bonnie, we both recognized that we felt like sisters from another mother. Bonnie was gracious, kind, supportive, funny, extremely intelligent, an amazing hostess, well intentioned, positive, externally optimistic and a sheer delight to be around. I miss Bonnie dearly and eagerly await when we meet again, in the spirit world. The earth lost one of its best last week and heaven most certainly got an upgrade when Bonnie arrived! 🙏

“ I only knew Bonnie for a short time, but as her nurse, we developed a friendship. Bonnie was extremely smart and capable, along with loving and kind. She loved yogi so much! May you rest in peace beautiful Bonnie, you added joy to my life. I am so glad Bonnie is out of pain and resting with our Lord 🙏💜💜💜💜
