

Brent Ernest Rustad

March 27, 1955 - April 3, 2022

Brent Ernest Rustad was born on Sunday, March 27, 1955 in Tempe, Arizona and passed to his rest April 3, 2022 at his home in Plano, Texas surrounded by family. His parents were Elder George H. Rustad and Gayle Rustad who resided in Phoenix, Arizona. Brent came home to his 2 older brothers Gary who was 10 years old and Roger who was 5 years old. They were so excited to have a baby brother in the family.

Brent lived in Arizona till about the age of 5 when his father took an administrative position in Amarillo, Texas in 1960. Brent loved Texas and always called Texas home. Brent attended the Amarillo SDA school through the 10th grade and then attended Tascosa High School. After high school he attended Southwestern Adventist University in Keene, Texas.

Some of Brent's fondest memories was playing gospel music with the family and his 2 older brothers Gary and Roger. His mother was a voice teacher and gave all the boys voice lessons. His father George would often play the mandolin or the violin and the family would often play music and sing gospel songs for hours at a time. Brent became an accomplished guitar player and loved to play his guitar anytime he could. Brent always had an entrepreneurial spirit and he was also a licensed life insurance broker and always had an eye for a good deal.

Love follows people around the world in different ways. Brent and Linda met nearly 20 years ago when the insurance company that they both worked for had staff training in Dallas. Brent attended the training and there he met Linda and they fell in love. When he met Linda, he loved her children like his own. Everyone who knew Brent knew that he had a very quick and funny sense of humor, which he used all the time.

Brent was diagnosed with cancer about 3 years ago and he fought aggressively but lost his battle with cancer April 3, 2022 at the age of 67. Brent had the goal of living to his birthday March 27th and he made it exactly one week past his birthday and he was born on a Sunday and died on a Sunday.

Brent is survived by his beloved fiancé Erlinda Banegas, his kids, Alberto Torres, Linda Torres, and Ash Rustad; his grandkids, Jessica Littlejohn, Chase Rustad-Torres and Nola Torres; his brother, Roger Rustad (Jewelretta), nephews, Gary Rustad, Roger Rustad, Jr., Barrett Rustad; nieces, Cherise White, Tiffany Stratte, Lauretta Rustad, Brent awaits the call of the Lifegiver Ridgeview Memorial Park in Allen, Texas.

“ I will never forget the Rustad. Elder Rustad baptized me when I was 12 and my sister was 14. I sat with Elder Rustad's mother the summer before my senior yr. i college. The boys were around and they always kept you laughing at their jokes. Brent was a jokester just like his brothers, Gary and Roger. He did well to keep up with his brothers and always had a laugh on his face. Brent we will see you soon when the clouds open wide and we can see all of our friends again. Yes the Rustad family loved music. I can see them playing in the orchestra in heaven.
