“ Just looking at “Father Dave” makes my blood boil. I apologize to his family. I’m sure that you are good people. As you know, he was an awful person who abused at risk/vulnerable children.

“ I wanted to share with everyone a memory I had with my friend of 37 years Father David Murphy, but reflecting back there are too many meaningful memories that I had with my best friend "Dave" so I had to narrow it down to the one that I'm sure my friend Dave would appreciate.

Dave and I went on a cross country trip together back when I was growing up in the projects in South Boston. It was this trip that took us to Chicago, and it was there that we went to his favorite College; Notre Dame.

While we were there Dave surprised me with not just a view of the Notre Dame Football field, but he was actually able to get us right onto the field where we proceeded to play catch with a football he had secreted from me.

It was moments like these with my best friend Dave that showed me...well, no.... that taught me what it was to be a sharing and caring person.

Without a doubt it was my Best Friend Dave that had saved me from a teen without direction to become the man that I am today. I will surely miss my best friend and mentor who was called "Son by his Mom and Dad"

"Father Dave" to his flock, "Brother Dave" to his Sister and Brother, "Uncle Dave" to his many Nieces and Nephews, and to me he was simply called "Dave".

May GOD Bless him and may he watch over us all.

Kevin.
