Voice of Prophecy Soloist Del Delker Passes to Her Rest

Delker inspired crowds for more than five decades

Beloved Voice of Prophecy soloist Del Delker passed to her rest this morning in Porterville, Calif., at the age of 93. For more than five decades, whether over the airwaves, in a church or at an evangelistic meeting, her strong contralto voice unabashedly shared Christ's love with rapt audiences around the world. Said Voice of Prophecy Speaker/Director Shawn Boonstra, "Del had the ability to preach a sermon through a song. Her face was radiant with the love of Christ, and over and over, I heard people say that listening to her was a taste of heaven!"

Her close friend (and pianist/organist) Phil Draper said, "I spoke to her last week and found her bright, witty and jovial—but tired. She was ready to rest in the arms of Jesus. She commented how she'd sung and talked about the soon coming of Jesus and was amazed it hadn't happened. Next awakening she will see Him face-to-face. I promised her we'd travel through the Universe singing His praises. Rest dear friend, Del. I will see you in the Morning."

Adventist world church president Ted Wilson echoed this sentiment, "When we get to heaven, we will meet many people who were not only blessed by Del's voice but were influenced by her Christ-centered singing to make a decision to follow Jesus."

In the coming week, the Voice of Prophecy will share additional tributes and a life sketch, as well as details on her celebration of life ceremony. In the meantime, all are invited to share memories of Delker on the Voice of Prophecy's Facebook page: facebook.com/vopministry.

“ Sou o Jonas Caetano e nasci no Brasil em São Paulo.
Já nos primeiros anos de vida, me recordo acordar já ouvindo o programa "A Voz da Profecia", neste caso irradiado no Brasil e o orador era o Pastor Roberto Rabello.
Naquela época, o Quarteto Arautos do Rei Brasileiro, ainda estava iniciando sua carreira promissora em 1964 e por isso o "The Kings Heralds" cantava em um Português bem carregado, um misto de Sotaque Yankee e Gaúcho, já que aprenderam um pouco com muitos Gaúchos Adventistas que Administravam a Organização no Brasil.
A Sra. Del Decker, sempre cantava com este quarteto e era muito. Incutiu em minha cabeça a adorar a Deus também pela boa música.
Hoje sou Diretor e Maestro do CMASP - Coro Masculino Adventista de São Paulo, com sede na região do Unasp-SP.
Temos 30 músicas em nosso repertório e posso afirmar com segurança, 50% deste repertório são de músicas daquela época.
"Ensina a criança no caminho que deve andar e jamais se desviara dele"
Trabalho para ir para a eternidade, e se eu for, tenho certeza, verei a Irmã Del Decker.
E você, quer também vê-la?
Aceite Jesus como seu Salvador pessoal.!

“ I grew up listening to Del Delker and the King's Heralds on radio and was priveledged as a child to see them during a visit to The Bahamas Junior Academy in the late 1960s early 1970s. I was deeply saddened learning of her passing as despite her age it seemed like she was going to be with us longer. She seemed to have that vitality when singing with the Homecoming Friends. May God bless your family, ease your grief and grant you comfort in your time of loss.

My name is Pastor James Uzoegwu from NIGERIA. The ministry of our Sister and Grand Mother Del and the Kings Heralds contributed in shaping my life as a Seventh-day Adventist. I introduced them to my kids and ever since then not a day will pass without Tobi (my last Son) listening to the songs of Del. We mourn but with joy that she does in Christ Jesus and we shall all meet again on that resurrection morning when our Lord and Saviour Jesus shall come again to harvest the world. Even so come Lord Jesus!
