“ When I was younger, preteen, I was always a little bit intimidated by her. When I was about 14 her and Uncle Norman were over and we started talking about Saturday Night Live. I mentioned how funny I thought Gilda Radners character Roseanne Roseannadanna was. She smiled big and laughed, I said she thought that character was so funny too. From that point on I felt a connection with her. I wish I had more time with her as an adult.
Love you Aunt Evelyn.
