“ *Dearest Felix,
Memories with Felix, this guy that i usws to work with. I babied him with paperworks. He used to audit his notes and remind him of his missing notes. I always bug him and he would always bug me when he is on call RN on weekends. I am younger than felix but i always feel like he is my anak at work. he would bring lunch from american ranch which he would alwYs say his fave filipino market. Felix, i will alwYs remember you my friend.

“ Last night, we got together for Kit's 9th day in heaven.

It's been days since he left us unexpectedly and the pain of losing someone very dear is truly heart wrenching 💔

Kit, Thank you for being part of the happiest years of my life. Oh, and thank you for introducing me my one great love. 😊😄😂😂

I will miss our adventures - completing Simbang Gabi masses, faithfully going to Sunday masses, car pools that I end up driving 80% of the time, consecutive night outs (which increased my tolerance to alcohol tremendously), playing like a pro in the casino, and driving all the way to Manaoag to give thanks.

I'll also miss all our food adventures from carinderia food of Aysee to fine dining in Manila Pen 🍷 I'll miss sharing a big bowl of Penpals ice cream with you, and drinking milkshakes like there's no tomorrow. Eating at JTs won't be as fun coz I won't have to fight with anyone over all the oil we pour on our order of double garlic rice! And I can't go to Mamou without remembering you coz that's the last place we ate together. (and the last time I gave you a tight hug!) 😭😭😭

Ours was a friendship so rare and pure that I'll forever cherish in my heart.

I am only consoled to the fact that now I have a new guardian angel who looks like a Chinese Aga Muhlach 🙏❤️

Farewell, my dear friend. Til we see each other again. ❤️❤️❤️

“ Felix was a very quiet man with a quick wit. I did not get to know him as well as others on our Sonoran Winds team but you were always there when I needed you for our shared patients. Never would I have thought the last time I would see you was passing in the hallway (you coming in and me going out) of the office building. Rest in Pease Felix.

“ I remember....

When you were a little boy, your mom and I were chatting while you were insisting on having a candy or something. Mom's advice was to let you continue with your tantrum.

I watched this cutie look at us (tired of crying) and in a jiffy you got up and bounced away to play. Oh Kitkit ,you were such an adorable child and you filled us with such joy!

Be blesses wherever you are. I will hold you dearest in my heart.

“ He was like a younger brother to me. He listened, he obeyed but at the same time when you needed help you know that he had your back. A gentle soul with a ready smile. I will never forget the hours we spent together hanging out, talking, laughing...feeling your arm on my shoulder...

Maybe now you will know true peace, maybe your heart will no longer ache and your mind will no longer wander. You will always and forever be a part of our lives and our hearts will always skip a beat whenever we remember you. Walk through eternity with your head held high, we are proud of you and we love you! Luceat Lux!

“ I still can't believe you're not with us anymore, writing this is very difficult as I am truly lost for words. You had an indescribable talent like there's nothing you can't handle. Loosing you was tragic that I can't seem to grasp the reality of it. I will always have happy and fond memories of you, Kuya. Thank you for all the laughter, the corny jokes, the good talks, being a helping hand when I need your medical expertise and for being a brother and a friend in one. I will miss you, Kuya Felix the Cat. You will always be in my prayers. You have done your part in this world; to serve and help others. It's time to collect your wings and Go with God.

“ Kuya Felix ! as my hospice team would call him. He was beloved by everyone in our company. He had that quiet disposition about him when we talked business and yet could crack jokes in a subdued way which made everyone laugh. At last Christmas and New Year, he posted "Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, Sonoran Winds Family". He found a second home at Sonoran. In December, our office surprised him with lunch and a birthday cake. He was so happy. He had joined us in our team outing, dinner out, Christmas part at the Hilton Double Tree. The last office gathering we had with him was that Thursday lunch with his favorite In N Out Burger where AJ, our CEO told him "Felix, get extra, you're losing weight, Man" and I got another burger for him. He was just smiling. He passed the next day. Little did we know that it would be our last time together with him. When I announced his passing in our 9 o'clock stand up meeting, everyone was in shock and cried. Kit was so easy to please. Never once did he say No to any requests, any patients assignment and any week-end oncalls schedule given him. He would drive near and far to see his patients without complaining. The majority of his patients loved him and were sorry to learn that he passed. They expressed their thanks and gratitude for his service. Your Sonoran Winds Hospice Family will miss you, Felix. I especially will miss you, Kit. Thank you for all you've done for your patients and your unconditional support and cooperation. "In your hands O Lord, we humbly entrust our brother Felix. In this life you embraced him with your tender love. Deliver him now from every evil and bid him eternal rest. The old order had passed away. Welcome him into paradise, where there will be no sorrow, no weeping or pain, but fullness of peace and joy. With Your Son, Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit. Forever and ever. Amen" . Rest now in the bosom of the Lord, dearest Kit.

*'There's part of the sun in the apple,
There's part of the moon in a rose;
There's part of the flaming Pleaides
In every leaf that grows.*

*Out of the vast comes nearness;
For the God whose love we sing
Lends a little of His heaven
To every little thing. '*

Thank you for being part of our lives. Rest in Piece dear batchmate.

“ Rest In Peace my dear friend. I know we have lost touch over the years but we sure did have some great adventures growing up together. From our regular Saturday Morning Basketball to sneaking into Euphoria with our fake ids to hanging until the wee morning playing Nintendo famicom! Good times, indeed! May you find peace and rest in the Lord's presence. I'll see you again, Kit.

“ *My Dear Kit,
May you rest in peace.
You will always hold a special place in my heart and I will cherish our happy memories together. It was always summertime for me when we all hoped for class cancellation so we would hangout together. We were teenagers and carefree, what an adventure. I will always remember you this way a very handsome kind hearted cousin always smiling at my crazy stories. Amen*
