“ Hey Cuz and family, There are never the right words to share with a kid in the time of loss of a parent. Just know that you guys are in my prayers and I trust God to comfort each of you at your own needs during this time of grief. Remember: “It’s because HE lives we can face tomorrow “. Your dad is free from pain and in the safety of the Lord. He is walking around heaven in a new body. I pray that you guys encourage each other and trust God to order your steps. I laugh to myself and say when I see George again maybe he will know how to pronounce my name. LOL .. I’m sure he will see my Mom~~

“ Dear George and Famiy,
You have my deepest sympathy in your hour of grief. Please know my thoughts and prayers are with you. May your father rest in peace. I did not know him personally, but I can certainly say he contributed to a young boy becoming a good and productive citizen; and for that he has certainly earned the jewel in his crown as he now walks on streets of silver and gold. George please accept these words of condolence from your 6th grade teacher Ms. Jeane Wright

“ I will truly miss my uncle. He brought laughter to any room he entered. He had a way with words...sometimes he even had his own language!!! He was known for saying like "Who told ya" & "There it is" I could go on for a while with saying from him...but I wont! We should all find comfort in knowing he is out of pain and has been embraced by his Mother & Father and his oldest brother Tom. Wow...what a reunion!! I will miss you and I love you...RIP!
