

Glen A. Ragle

July 14, 1961 - February 14, 2024

Glen Andrew Ragle, 62, of La Habra Heights, California, was called to heaven on February 14, 2024. Glen was born July 14, 1961, to Richard and Daphne Ragle.

Glen, a most devoted and loving husband and father is survived by his wife, Vanessa; daughters, Sarah and Sandra; and his two playful cats, Tuffy IV and Fig.

After attending college at CSULB, Glen worked in the environmental and underground storage tank industry for over 35 years at GeoResearch, Wayne Perry, Inc., and ultimately Fueling and Service Technologies, Inc. (FASTECH). Glen was an accomplished professional and was instrumental in developing many successful programs, offering valuable comradery, mentorship, and expertise to all with whom he worked.

A man of many hobbies, in his early years Glen loved surfing, radio-controlled airplanes, riding bikes and causing trouble with his friends. Later in life, he developed passions for sailing, photography, astronomy, building and flying drones, target shooting and reloading, camping, home improvement, and gardening. He loved reading books and watching documentaries; he was always the guy who knew something about any topic you could think of, and never failed in being eager to share that knowledge.

Glen was a kind-hearted, caring, and good man who was always more than happy to help others. He had a knack for using analogies and drawings to explain complicated topics. He often said that if you borrowed something from someone, you return it in better condition than you received it. Not wanting to bother others, he prided himself on being self-sufficient and a meticulous planner, wanting to “do things right the first time.” He poured that same diligent attention into his care for others, always looking after his family and loving to spoil his girls.

Glen was truly a great man whose impact will forever be felt by his family who misses him dearly. His passing leaves an unfillable hole in the hearts of all who loved him. His ability to sacrifice, provide, support, teach, forgive and love will be forever ingrained in the hearts of those who knew him.

Details for a Memorial service and celebration of Glen’s life to follow.

Please feel free to share a memory or photos, and check back for updates.

P.S. No need to send flowers through this platform.

Friday, we celebrated Glen's life. We appreciated everyone who came out and showed their support as well as the flowers sent.

Vanessa, Sarah, and Sanda spoke with well-written eulogies along with great composure. His long-time friends Tom and Kirk shared fun stories of him as a young man. It wasn't easy but family, friends, and co-workers shared Glen lore both humorous, endearing, and inspiring.

Glen was the best brother-in-law, always there to lend a hand, an ear, vast knowledge of technical issues, or a wise caring perspective. I will miss him greatly.

So for him, I made the slide show for the service. It isn't perfect but perfectly shows he was truly loved.

“ I have fond memories of Glen. Our family moved into the house next to Glen's parents when Glen was just getting out of high school. His mother, Daphne and I became fast friends/sisters and spent a lot of time together. One of my favorite memories is of Vanessa and Glen's wedding. We sat with the family and loved seeing you become man and wife. Later, after Sarah and Sandra were born, Daphne and I would go down to your house to visit you and her beloved grandchildren. Glen was such a wonderful, good man and you were lucky to spend so many years with him. I am praying for comfort for you Vanessa, Sarah, Sandra and your families. He will be watching over you as you continue your lives and will not miss one event. There is so much more to our souls and the afterlife than I could have imagined. Watch for signs that he is there with you. Knowing that you will see each other again is comforting. Hugs!!!
