Funeral Services will be at Rose Hills Memorial Chapel on January 18, 2019 at 11am

Harold (Hal) Henry Cook passed away on November 25th 2018, at the age of 94 in his home at the San Clemente Villas by the Sea, Assisted Living, in San Clemente, California. Hal was born and raised in Pasadena, California to his parents, Orin and Sue(Bomberger) Cook. He was the oldest of three children and is preceded in death by his sister Theda (Cook) Wilson. After high school, Hal served in WWII as a Reconnaissance Car Driver. After the war he returned home, became an accountant and married Margaret (Christensen) Cook of Pasadena, California. They spent most of their married life in Alhambra, California where they raised their two children Claudine (Cook) Bovich and Brad Cook. They enjoyed traveling and an active social life. Later they moved to San Juan Capistrano, California and were very active at San Clemente Presbyterian Church. His beloved wife Margaret passed in 2008. He moved to the San Clemente Villas by the Sea in 2010 until his passing.

He is survived by his daughter Claudine Bovich (Tom) of San Clemente, CA, his son Brad Cook (Suzy) of Denver, CO, and his grandchildren Andrew Bovich (Darcey), Eric Bovich (Tyler), Nathan Cook (Kalie), and Danielle Cook. Hal also has three great grandchildren, Reese and Cash Bovich and Kennedy Bovich. Hal is survived by his sister Dolores (Cook) Hepner and brother-in-law

Dick Hepner, of Claremont, CA, along with many nieces and nephews and many great nieces and nephews.

Hal will always be remembered and loved for his optimism and happy nature. He was a loving and caring husband, father, and “Gramps”.
