“ He was the best tickler of all time and helped me bodysurf my first wave in the Pacific Ocean. He was blessed with a bevy of beauties inside and out.

“ I remember him as Uncle Harry. He was brave enough to invite the Einspahr clan over for Thanksgiving. More than once! He showed me the way to make white meat moist. He cooked the turkey upside down! So many more fond memories will be mine because he shared his family with me and my family.

What a fantastic man! Dedicated family man, hard worker, fun sense of humor. He and his family will always be a huge part of my memories from my teens and early 20's. Rest with God, Mr. Lundin, and give your lovely wife a hug for me!

His legacy is you girls, and Corinne is one of my friends from so many years ago. She shares her memories almost daily, so I almost feel like I have met all of you! What a wonderful family!
