“ The joys in Herb's life. in addition to Jesus and family, as we recall, are these:

His avid interest in photography.

He loved staying connected with the people who touched his life.

He possessed a keen wit and always came up with clever saying that made you smile.

He held a great love for Mount Vernon Academy and enjoyed keeping up with those who attended there.

Writing public relations articles about his beloved church.

He and his Judy were very involved with Adventist Heritage Ministries.

Herb always held a profound gratitude to his parents for providing him with a Christian education.

Kindness, developed through a true Christian spirit, is what we remember most about Herb.

A prince of a man in every way.

A friend of Herb's since boyhood, John Kossick and his wife Betty

“ That SMILE!!!! There was something so sweet about Mr. Pritchard's smile. I remember several times being with Nancy and her parents and her dad (AND mom) had such a genuine LOVE for others. It was so evident every time I was around them. His gentleness was so reflective of another great man, Jesus! No wonder he was always smiling when I saw him ! Love to all as you continue to walk through this journey, Doreen (Dori) & Lynn ... Proverbs 3:5-6

“ My father (George H. Rustad) and Herb Pritchard worked together at the Texico Conference in Amarillo, Texas where Herb was the treasurer and my father was the president. I think Herb had the best sense of humor of anyone I had ever met. It was dry and he could say things without cracking a smile, which made it even funnier.

One day Herb and my dad were traveling together and Herb came by the house to pick up my dad. Just as they were just ready to leave, my dad stopped the car and asked me to run back into the house and grab his mandolin. I did, and Herb had the trunk open when I returned with the mandolin and said, "that mandolin goes in the trunk...NOT in the car".

He said it with such a straight face I was sure he wanted it there. My dad who sometimes wore out his welcome playing the mandolin nonstop, assured me he was just joking and his playing would keep Herb awake while he was driving. He was one funny guy and one of the most dedicated Christians I ever met.

I have set up this webpage so Herb's friends and family and share memories and recall the fun times. Only the memories that are shared, are going to be the memories that last. We are all getting homesick for heaven were we can meet our family again.
