Ignacio Javier Pascual

“He that covereth his sins shall no prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.” Proverbs 28:13.

Javier was born in Paracho, Michocan, Mexico on September 20, 1954. At age 61, he passed away on January 19, 2016, at Montclair Hospital in Montclair, California. His parents were Juan Pascual and Maria Caro. When Javier was three years old his father passed away leaving his wife and five children. His mother and youngest children moved to Mexicali, Baja California, Mexico. He lived in Mexicali through junior high school, received his legal resident status, and went back and forth to the United States with his mother.

At age 19 he moved permanently to the U.S. to reside in Los Angeles and later moved to the Baldwin Park area where he lived for many years. He held several jobs including gas station attendant, car dealer maintenance, and later worked 10 years with his brother doing cabinet making and construction where he developed his craftsman skills. His last employment was at Claremont Lincoln School of Theology for seven years doing maintenance and using his learned craftsman skills. He really enjoyed the job and was well appreciated by the school for his efforts.

In the late 1970's he married Jana, “Missy”, and had three beautiful children, Javier Jr., Melissa, and Jennifer. Sadly Javier Jr. passed away at age 16. Javier second marriage came in 1996 when he married Irasema, "Lilly", and had another three beautiful children, Isaiah, Stephanie, and Isac. He had four grandchildren, Patrick, Isaiah Jr., Alexander, and Valeria Annabel. He is survived by his children, grandchildren, brother, sisters, nieces, and nephews.

He struggled with bad habits throughout his adult lifetime and at various times he sought help through faith in God and different programs to turn his life around. In spite of this, Javier in his own way loved his children and grandchildren and wished that they be more closely united and supportive of each other.
