“ I knew John (Johnny) for two years when we were both NROTC scholarship students at Tulane. He was one of the nicest and kindest people I ever met. Going through an old NROTC yearbook from 1978, I just discovered that he passed away last year. I've been in Southern California for 45 years and I'm sorry that John and I lived within 30 miles at least the past 30 years and I didn't know that or I would have looked him up. I know John's in heaven, and looking out for his family and friends still here. Sincerely, Shawn C., La Habra, CA
