THOMAS TURNER - April 27 at 02:52 PM

TT

I am very sorry to hear the passing of Ken. My deepest condolences to his family and friends. Ken and I go way back to 1960 where we played for the West Covina Broncos. After a successful season we played in the first "Little Rose Bowl Game" against a team from Pennsylvania. Ken was a wide receiver. Possibly that is when Ken started to develop the Cal Berkely hall of fame hands. Later we played together on the Varsity baseball team at West Covina High. I might be a little fuzzy on this but I believe Ken was offered a contract by the Los Angeles Dodgers after our senior season. Thanks Ken for all the memories. Sincerely, Tom Turner
