“ My Sister Lee Ellen was one of the happiest people I have known. Her easy smile and infectious little giggle will be sorely missed. She made the best apple pie, tea cakes, & iced tea ever. Your brother Johnny loves you. See you soon on the golden streets...

I was just getting to know my Aunt Lee again, when she found out she had Cancer. I loved her so much. It wasn't hard to love her, she was happy, loving & kind lady who lived her faith in God to all around her. She prayed for all her children & grandchildren everyday & God has blessed her with many. Her prayers were for each one to know & love God, because she said, I want to meet each one in Heaven. I want to meet her there too. Rest In Peace my sweet Aunt Lee Ellen. ❤️🙏❤️
