

Linda Cain

June 9, 1947 - March 13, 2018

Linda Lee Cain

Born: June 9, 1947, Whittier, CA

Parents: Ray Patrick Cain, Lillie Ann Kohl Cain

Brother: Bruce William Cain

Linda is survived by her mother, brother, two nephews (Eddie and Chris Cain), along with three great nieces (Jenny, Sammy Jo and Serena Rose), three great nephews (Bradley, Jared and Zackry), with one great great nephew (Blake) and many spouses.

The Cain Family lived on a chicken ranch on 2nd Street in Whittier, CA raising fryer chickens for Knott's Berry Farm. Linda loved to play outside with the baby chickens and her pet baby duck. Linda loved to swim in the pool with her family, and play in the house with her brother Bruce.

Before public school, Linda and Bruce went to private school at the teacher's home. Linda and her brother went to an Indian School in Pauma Valley, CA. Linda continued to love swimming in her family pool in Pauma Valley. Linda was a good student in school.

She went to work at a maternity shop in the Escondido Mall when she was seventeen. Then Linda and her sister-in-law, Susan, went to work for her mom at her mom's dress shop, Lil's, where she worked for three years.

Then the family decided to travel in their Airstream trailer for six months. On returning, Linda went to work at many jobs, Pine Tree Lumber, Thrifty Drugs and Wal-Mart. Linda loved to work in the yard. She made beautiful Easter baskets for the entire family. Her and her mom would deliver them to Bruce and Tom's for big and for Easter dinners.

The passing of her dad was very sad for Linda, but that never stopped her to make a big occasion out of Christmas and she wrapped the most beautiful Christmas gifts you ever saw. Linda had two special surprises in life with one being when she passed her pharmacy test and the second when she got a credit card and redeemed it at the bank and she had $10,000, that was a happy day!!

Linda feel at work a few years ago and that started her downhill battle with bad health. Then July 2017, Lil and Linda moved from Fallbrook Skilled Nursing, where Linda passed away on March 13, 2018.

We all have loving memories of Linda and she was good to everyone's children. Linda was always there for her mom.

Sincere love to Linda from the Cain Family
