“ Grandma Paige was a special lady, truly. I knew her for a much shorter time than I thought I would. I felt we had a good time eating together, watching some TV, and even enjoying the sounds of the outside world in the afternoons along side the dogs. Her love of life and sweets was beautiful, and her love for soda surpassed my own. I think, one of my favorite memories, was grandma asking about the tall beautiful woman. She asked where she was, all the time! That woman is my wife, and she found it to be hilarious and endearing as well. I'm going to miss her, the time I got to know her was not long enough, but I will cherish every memory I had with her. She was loved, truly. Myself and others made sure to show her, to let her know. We love you grandma, I hope you rest comfortably in heaven.

“ I only had the chance to know her this past year, but that was more than enough to see what a truly wonderful person she was. Her quick wit and unexpected one-liners could lift our spirits even on the toughest days. I'm going to miss her so much, but I'm grateful I got to meet someone who brought so much joy simply by being her fun, genuine self. Rest peacefully, Lonie. Thank you for every moment.

“ She was a kind and funny woman. When I had my surgery she waited by the door asking when I would be home. She waited for me so that she could give me one of her walkers. While she didn't always say much. When you did get her talking, she would have us roaring with laughter. And usually blushing. She loved her M words: money and men! She once told me to be careful of my legs when I was wearing shorts. Because a man would see them and want to bite them 😂 I am wishing her all the peace and love that she deserves. That she is resting well and catching up with Gladys and Oscar, and all her family members waiting to greet her. I'm glad to have been a part of her life and last days. RIP grandma 💜
