

Natascha Ramus

May 19, 1982 - February 25, 2019

Natascha Ramus was born May 19, 1982 to Bruno and Katia Ramus, in Biel, Switzerland. She moved to the United States in 1991 with her mother and her sister Lisa. They settled in Laguna Niguel, California. Natascha was a very talented young lady, and was fluent in many languages including, French, Italian, English, German and Yugoslavian. She attended California State University in Fullerton, CA. She majored in International Business. She later moved to Milan, Italy to pursue her dreams.

Natascha was a very brilliant beautiful, kind-hearted and compassionate person and loved God. Natascha was found dead in her apartment February 25, 2019 on the floor and an investigation is underway. The family is devastated and has no money for funeral expenses or travel and desperately needs the public help. At the time of her death she was 35 years old. She leaves behind her mother Katia Kind, Father Bruno Ramus, sister Lisa Careria and her brother Adrea Careri as well as nieces and nephews.
