

Quenshon Dontray Jackson

July 2, 1992 - February 22, 2013

Quenshon Dontray Jackson was born on July 2, 1992 in Riverside, California, the first child of Donald Hicks and LaShundra Jackson.

Quenshon accepted Christ and was baptized at the age of 10. He attended Patriot High School and was employed by Liquidation Station in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Lovingly known to his family and friends as “Que”, “Man-Man”, “Quickie”, especially known to his little brother as “Ugly”, and everybody knew he was “grandma’s love, grandma’s life, grandma’s EVERYTHING”. Quenshon knew no strangers and loved unconditionally.

Anyone that encountered him could testify to the fact that he always greeted you with a smile, holding one side of his pants up to keep them from falling, and he never wore shoes! Had his family invested in Hanes, they would have all been rich by now.

Aside from spending time with his friends and family, Quenshon enjoyed composing music and would at a moments notice ‘freestyle’ lyrics.

On February 22, 2013, at 12:50 p.m., the Lord saw fit to call His angel home for his reward. We give God thanks for the life of a young man who we are so proud to be able to call Son, Grandson, Brother, Nephew, Cousin, and Friend.

Special memories of Quenshon will be etched in the hearts and minds of his surviving family members: mother, LaShundra Jackson, father, Donald Hicks, brother, Malik Butts, maternal grandparents, Jimmie Flowers & Louis Simon, paternal grandparents, Dannie Mae Hicks & Joe Hicks (preceded him in death), and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives and friends.

EVERYTHING". Quenshon knew no strangers and loved unconditionally.

To "My Little Boy":

I can still remember the day that you were born. When I first had you, I thought that you were "special" because you had that cone head after they had to suction you out, but momma reassured me that everything would be ok.

Whether it was when I had to stop you from choking when you were first born, or rescue you from taking a fall off of my bed, my love for you was instantaneous and our bond continued to grow stronger as each day passed. There were times when I was told that I should just step aside and allow you to become a man, regardless of what changes you had to endure, but I knew from the very beginning that a mother's love never fails.

From a young age, I could see the little genius in you; remember how you re-programmed your grandma's cell phone even when the dealer couldn't? You were an amazing son from day one, and if I had to describe you in one word, I would say that you were brilliant. Even though you weren't here long enough for us to witness you grow to your full potential, in the short time that you were here, you embodied a helping and giving spirit just like me.

Quenshon, not only were you my son, you were my friend. I looked forward to you taking care of me when I was old. You made me smile and kept me laughing even at times when I didn't want to. Although you could work my last nerve, I could do no wrong in your eyes and you understood what I taught you at a young age. You saw my struggles but you always made sure that I was alright. Even when I was sick, as long as I knew you were there, I was always at peace. Whether you made sure that I had something to eat or you just called to check on me, you were always right there.

I have to laugh when I think about how you would throw your right hand up in the air talking about "mama.....mama" when you thought you were in trouble. I smile when I think about how you would just call me "beautiful". I'll always remember how you would call me "Big Baby".....you knew I hated that!

Although you left this earth early, I know now that you had a full understanding and appreciation of everything that I tried to teach and instill in you from the very beginning, and that shows through the impact that you had on everyone around you. I must say that you led an amazing life in the 20 years that you were here. You experienced more in 20, than some people have in 50; maybe you knew something that we didn't!

And to De'Ashyia, I am so grateful that my son was able to experience the unconditional love of a good woman. I am truly happy that he had you in his life.
