Even shes on pain, she manage to smile to me.

TI

I was her caretaker for almost 3 years. my favorite memory was she hated physical therapy. She would say she was to tired. In order for me to try to get her to walk around. I had to buy chocolate donuts and leave them in the kitchen and then tell her....she would rush for them and she wasn't tired anymore. The "miracle donuts". Her day wasn't complete without her mocha frap either....rest in peace 🕊️.
