“ I remember so many memories of grandpa. I remember being in a bubble bath up to my ears while him and Mimi would waltz in the bathroom to classical music. Or when he was Santa every year handing out Christmas presents. He was at every one of my band concerts from my first to my last. He always used to find all the almonds in his bridge mix before sharing (im allergic) He used to get up every morning and make waffle sandwiches to eat before he took me to school and meet me every friday after school to go to rite aid and get ice cream. He taught my little brother how to swim and how to throw a football. He taught my little sister how to read and write. Grandpa was the best grandpa i could ever ask for I hated how he left this world but glad hes finally no longer struggling or confused and I miss him every day. I love my grandpa with all my heart. He was and still is my hero. -CHRISTY

“ I Loved Dick from the minute I met him, warm personality, Big beautiful smile so intelligent , we hit it off from the start, how wonderful that Georgia would have the perfect mate. It was a very sad thing to watch someone you cared for slip away, we will have his memories for a life time. It was a pleasure to know him.
