Obituary – In Remembrance of Sue M. Hikawa

Sue M. Hikawa (90) born on July 26, 1932, in Sanger, CA, a resident of La Palma CA, passed away peacefully at Missy's Guest Homes on March 21, 2023.

She is survived by her sons, Douglas (Kathi), Andrew (Betty) and Brian Hikawa of CA; Grandsons, Evan and Cooper Hikawa of CA; Sue was the last surviving member of her family (Yamamoto) living in both the US and Japan - She joins her beloved (Frank), her siblings: brothers, Toshiaki, Mikio (Misa) and Yoshiharu (Sadako) Yamamoto of CA; sisters, Kiyomi (Hatsuzo) and Akiko Yamamoto both of Japan. She is also survived by many nieces, nephews, and other relatives here in the US and Japan.

While Sue was born in California, she was raised in Japan for most of her early years. She returned to the US for her high school years in Los Angeles. This is where she met her 2 forever best friends (Emma and Ellen) and her husband (Frank).

She will be remembered for her friendliness, contagious smile and always available to help others. She enjoyed being a host for family and friend events, reading, gardening, walking, watching her favorite TV shows, and traveling throughout the world via her favorite United Airlines.

A memorial service will be held at Orange County Buddhist Church on Saturday, April 29 at 1 pm, 909 S Dale Ave, Anaheim, CA 92804. <https://www.fukuimortuary.com/> (213) 626-0441
