“ With great sadness I learned last week that my Aunt Susan has passed away. It grieves me greatly to know how much she suffered in the end of her life. From a little girl she treated me with great kindness and took me to vacation at her house each summer with Uncle David and Aaron, my sweet cousin. And when I had children of my own, I met with her at her home, and she taught me how to make Christmas Brittle while my baby son bounced in his Johnny Jump Up in the kitchen door way. What a wonderful smile, exuberant laugh and energy that was through the roof! We will miss you so very much...until we meet again.

“ It was a pleasure being your chaplain and helping you in your last days. You would bring encouragement to me each visit and as I put together this video of your life story, I am reminded of the wonderful times you had.
