

Zachary Scott Engle

January 14, 1984 - February 25, 2025

Zachary Scott Engle, of Carnation, Washington, passed away on February 25, 2025, at the age of 41. Born at home on January 14, 1984, in Carnation, Zach grew up with a sweet nature and a laid-back spirit, playing in the woods and along the riverbanks of his hometown. Throughout his life Zach had a wide range of interests. He loved Jesus, superheroes, hobbits, snowboarding, video gaming, hiking, swimming, movies, music, Monopoly (which he always won), and attending Comicon. A lover of words, and wit, he was an avid reader, a casual guitarist, and someone who could deliver a perfectly timed line from a book or movie with hilarious precision. His dry, sarcastic humor and sharp intellect made him unforgettable to those who knew him.

Zach accepted Jesus as his Savior and was baptized at the age of eight during his years at Spring Glen SDA School. He later transitioned to homeschooling and spent his high school years at Sky Valley Education Center in Monroe, WA, where he made many great friends and graduated in 2002.

During his high school years, Zach worked summers cooking in the concessions at the Fair before moving on to Target, where he honed his skills in customer service. He later worked for Anderson Roofing as a roof monitor before finding his niche in the world of tech support – a perfect fit for his calm, patient demeanor. Most recently, he worked from home for IsoFusion, where he was a valued team member. Zach built his own computer from scratch and served as the family's go-to tech support.

Well-versed in Scripture he often took part in Bible studies with friends and family. Though health challenges in his later years limited his ability to do many of the things he loved, Zach faced these hardships with quiet strength, never complaining. His faith and sense of humor carried him through.

He was responsible, dependable, and thoughtful—and leaves behind warm memories and the legacy of a life lived with quiet integrity. Zach was a joy to raise, a blessing to know, and he is deeply missed by all who loved him.
